

DEFENDS ACTION
OF CONVENTIONPresident Issues Statement Regarding Nomination.

REVIEWS ALL THE CONTESTS

Taft Enters Into Lengthy Justification of Seating Delegates at Chicago and Declares Roosevelt Contests, as Originally Filed With the National Committee, Were Not Instituted in Good Faith.Washington, July 29.—A statement approved by President Taft, defending his nomination by the Chicago convention, was made public at the White House. It reviews every contest before the Republican national committee and the credentials committee of the convention and asserts that each contest was settled logically, upon its merits. The statement was submitted to the cabinet at a recent meeting and received the approval of the president's official family.The statement, which is a lengthy document of 144 printed pages, is a detailed denial of the charge that the renomination of President Taft was accomplished by the seating of fraudulently elected delegates to the convention.It takes up individually the 238 contests instituted by the Roosevelt forces against Taft delegates who were seated and presents evidence in each of these cases to show that the Taft delegates were regularly elected.A resume of the statement, prepared by Charles D. Hilles, formerly President Taft's secretary and now chairman of the Republican national committee, takes up each contest briefly.
This resume opens with the declaration that the Roosevelt contests, as originally filed before the national committee, were not instituted in good faith.

Taft Declared the Nominee.

"The total number of delegates summoned to the convention," says the resume, "was 1,078, with 540 necessary to a choice. Mr. Taft had 651 votes on the first and only ballot and was declared the nominee.""There were instituted against 238 of the delegates regularly elected for Taft contests on behalf of Roosevelt.
These contests were avowedly instituted not for the purpose of really securing seats in the convention, not for the purpose of adducing evidence which would lead any respectable court to entertain the contests, but for the purpose of deceiving the public into the belief that Mr. Roosevelt had more votes than he really had, as the convention and primaries were in progress for the selection of delegates.
"The 238 contests were reduced by abandonment, formal or in substance, to seventy-four. The very fact of these 164 frivolous contests itself reflects upon the genuineness and validity of the remainder."The resume then enumerates the contests and reviews the arguments in each case. The review of the evidence in the contests embraced in the White House statement is certified to by Victor Rosewater, chairman of the national committee, and Thomas H.
Devine, chairman of the credentials committee.As an appendix the statement carries in detail the vote in the national committee on each of the contests and a statement of the dates of the Taft and Roosevelt conventions in contested states. The object of the latter is to show that the Roosevelt delegates were chosen after the regular conventions had named Taft representatives.

PASS NEW SUGAR TARIFF

Senate Regulars and Progressives Join Hands.Washington, July 29.—A Republican sugar tariff bill, the first purely Republican revision measure of the present congress, was adopted in the senate. Deserving their allies the Republican progressives, by an ironclad agreement with the regulars, succeeded in passing a tariff reduction bill which they believe President Taft will sign if it reaches him.The sugar bill was a compromise between the Lodge plan, endorsed by the regular Republicans, and the Bristow bill, behind which the progressives lined up. It would cut the present sugar duty of $1.90 to $1.60 per 100 pounds; would abolish the Dutch standards, under which practically no refined sugar can be imported; and would abolish the 7½ cent "refiner's differential," an additional duty on refined sugar, which, it is charged, has accrued directly to the profit of the sugar refiners.

tend Him.New Bedford, Mass., July 29.—W.

the Philippines, is reported seriously ill at his home on the island, where he has been spending the summer. Three physicians have been summoned to the island to attend him.SANCTIONS NEW

DIXON CALLS ON COLONEL

Plan to Be Laid Before Convention Provides for Independent Tickets in Every State Except Perhaps Six, a Clean Break From Both the Old Parties and Formation of a New One to Endure Permanently.Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 29.—A working program for the new party was approved by Colonel Roosevelt. Senator Dixon, his campaign manager, who recently has been in consultation with leaders of the movement, came to Oyster Bay to lay their views before the former president. After a long conference it became known that the fundamental question of policy and procedure had been agreed upon, subject to approval the National Progressive convention, which is to meet in Chicago next week.The program which will be submitted to the convention contains these major provisions:Independent tickets in every state except perhaps six, in which it is believed the Republican organizations can be taken over bodily.A clean break from both of the old parties, the Republican organizations which it is expected to capture to be used as an integral portion of the new party.Formation of the party with the idea that it is to endure permanently, whatever the outcome of the November election.Senator Dixon was accompanied on his visit to Sagamore Hill by Dean Kirchwey, head of the law department of Columbia university, and O.
K. Davis, publicity manager of the new party.The senator said, after he had talked with Colonel Roosevelt, that straight National Progressive tickets would be run in every state except a few in which the Republican organizations would co-operate with the new party and place Roosevelt candidates for electors on the regular ticket.

Where Laws Do Not Interfere.

This will be possible in states in which the law does not require the names of Taft and Sherman to be printed on the ballot as the Republican nominees.The states in which there will be no independent ticket, he said, are Kansas, Nebraska, California, both the Dakotas and probably one or two others.Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, he said, probably will be the National Progressive candidate for governor of that state."Mr. Beveridge will be elected governor," the senator predicted. "We will carry Michigan, Illinois and Pennsylvania."It was felt that a definite outline should be ready for submission to the Chicago convention and it was largely for this reason that Senator Dixon came on from Chicago for the conference.In making up the independent tickets in various states candidates on either the Republican or Democratic tickets may be placed on the ballot, provided they agree to support the National Progressive electoral candidates. In several states, including Pennsylvania, it is expected the entire Republican ticket for state officers will be placed on the National Progressive ticket.Insistence upon making the party entirely independent is in accordance with the wishes of Colonel Roosevelt, who insists that he and his associates must appeal to Democrats and Republicans alike and look beyond the present contest to the future, shaping their plans in such a way that the movement will go on whether defeat or victory comes at the end of the present campaign.

COLQUIT AND SHEPARD LEAD

Results of Democratic Primaries in Texas.Dallas, Tex., July 29.—With about two-thirds of the vote cast in the Democratic primary election accounted for, Governor Colquitt maintains a lead of about 8,000 over his competitor, Judge Ramsey.Representative Morris Shepard's lead for United States senator has increased with the fuller returns. He now has a majority of 12,000 over all his competitors.Rumors as to other offices are meagre. Apparently Representatives James Young of the Third district and Oscar Calloway of the Twelfth have been nominated.Superior Freight Men Strike.
Superior, Wis., July 29.—Two hundred and fifty freight handlers at the Great Northern four docks have gone on strike. They ask 35 cents an hour for straight work and 40 cents an hour for handling cement, following the lead of the Duluth stevedores who went on strike several days ago.

JUDGE E. B. DILLON.

Republican Nominee
for Governor of Ohio.

UNABLE TO UNITE FACTIONS

Ohio Republican Candidate for Governor Decides to Quit.Columbus, O., July 29.—Inability to reconcile the factions of the Republican party in the state was given as a reason by Common Pleas Judge E.
B. Dillon of Columbus, Republican nominee for the governorship, in a public statement in which he said he would decline the nomination.He said he would present his withdrawal to the Republican state central committee, which will meet here next Wednesday. The committee is empowered to fill the vacancy. It was reported, however, that the committeemen may decide to call the convention together again to name a candidate.Judge Dillon was named in the second session of the state convention July 2 and his name was put forward as a compromise after numerous ballots had failed to give a majority either to A. L. Garford of Elyria, the Roosevelt candidate; Lawrence K.
Langdon, the Taft candidate; or B. H.
Grogger, who received the undivided support of Cincinnati's big delegation.ROOSEVELT EXPLAINS MINNESOTA'S VISITTelegraphs Judge Purdy Why He Sent for S. Y. Gordon.Minneapolis, July 29.—In a telegram addressed to Judge Milton D. Purdy of Minneapolis Colonel Roosevelt told the Minnesota progressives why he invited Sam Y. Gordon to lunch with him at Oyster Bay and did not invite some of the other candidates for governor in the Gopher state. He said it was "because the lieutenant governor was openly for the progressive national ticket," and that he would "enjoy seeing any other candidate for governor in Minnesota who is straight out and open against Mr. Taft."The telegram was in response to the one sent by Judge Purdy and H.
T. Halbert last Thursday asking the colonel why he invited only Gordon.
Intimating that by this apparent favoritism among the candidates for governor he was embarrassing the leaders of the progressive movement who were trying not to take sides in the state primary scramble. Colonel Roosevelt does not say who arranged the Gordon visit further than he was "requested by one of our delegates to Chicago" to see him.

SINCE TAFT TOOK OFFICE

Congress Has Been in Session Two-thirds of the Time.Washington, July 29.—If ever a president had congress on his hands that man is William H. Taft. It has amounted almost to a continuous performance. No recent predecessor of Mr. Taft ever had such a large percentage of congress mixed up with his administration.Mr. Taft has been president 1,253 days. The full presidential term lasts 1,461 days. Although he still lacks seven months of completing a full term congress has been in session 831 days, or two-thirds of his time. And the end is not yet by any means. The present session may break all records, for none of the leaders can do more than vaguely speculate on the adjournment date.

OUR USELESS COMMISSIONS.

Members Draw Salaries and Duplicate the Work of Other Government Employees—Two Senators Denounce the Practice—No Hope For an Immigration Bill—Nye a Philosopher.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 29.—[Special.]— Does any one think the senate of the United States is going to sit here all summer and try the Archbald case?
If so he is very much mistaken. It will be almost impossible to keep a quorum of the senate here after the middle of August if the session should last that long. Already senators are getting ready to leave for the summer.
Many of them will go beyond the reach of a recall by the senate, and others will have ill health reasons as to why they should not remain. It is almost certain that the Archbald case will go over to the December session or to a called or adjourned session in the fall.

Critics Commissions.

Senators Hitchcock of Nebraska and Cullerton of Texas took occasion to criticize the useless commissions which the government maintains, two of which are supposed to be adjusting the water line between the United States and Canada. There is a disposition to have less commission work, but generally it is found that friends of a commission room drawing salary, and efforts to disturb them are unavailing. The millions that have been spent in commissions, which simply duplicate the work of other government employees, is astounding. It shows what a great and generous government this is.After the 4th of March next it is doubtful whether commission jobs enough can be found to take care of the "lame ducks" that will be in Washington.

No Immigration Legislation.

Great was the disappointment of members of the house because the immigration bill was left out. More particularly was this disappointment felt by members from the south, who have been insisting for years that more restrictions shall be laid on immigrants.
The bill which passed the senate was quite severe, containing several restrictions, but the bill in the house has an educational test which would shut out many immigrants. But there seems to be no hope for it. The southern members, notably Congressman Roddenbery of Georgia, charged breach of faith, failure to obey platform pledges and such other arguments, but all to no purpose. The house did not propose to pass a restrictive immigration bill just as it was going into a campaign.

Nye Has Doubts.

Congressman Frank M. Nye of Minnesota is a philosopher. He is a brother of the late Bill Nye, who was a humorist. "I have grave doubt whether my service in this house will be long continued," said Nye in a speech. He knows the political upheaval that is going on in Minnesota.
"If I am not to continue here," he added, "it will be a great detriment to the country." That showed a bit of Nye humor. But he accepted the conditions and went on to make one of those philosophic speeches for which he is noted.

What He Could Do.

Speaker Clark was making a ruling on a rather ticklish proposition. "If the chair desired," he said, "he could submit this question to the house and dodge it. Mr. Speaker Blaine sometimes did that, but I am not going to do it this time." And he didn't.

House Quips.

"I never objected to a bill of this character on earth," declared Jim Mann, who had been accused of objecting a short time previous.
"You haven't been on earth recently," asserted Finley of South Carolina, who made the accusation.
"I have, but you have not," retorted Mann."I withdraw my objection under protest," remarked Congressman Rucker of Colorado regarding some bill.
"It doesn't make any difference how you withdraw it so you withdraw it," replied Speaker Clark. "All I want to know is that it's withdrawn.""I had almost completed my statement," remarked Congressman Miller of Minnesota, who was trying to explain a bill, "when the urgency of legislation amputated my remarks."A new way of saying that his time had expired.

International Gambling.

"I think that would form one of the greatest international gambles in which the world has ever indulged," was the remark of Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island, speaking of the proposition to charge foreign ships tolls, give our ships free passage and lay by a fund to pay back the money to the foreign ships if an arbitration court should find we had no right to discriminate in favor of our own ships going through our own canal. The fact that we allowed England to get the best of us in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty becomes more apparent as the discussion goes on.

ABANDON HOPE FOR MIKADO

Japanese Emperor Is Unconscious and Seems Near End.Tokio, July 29.—The condition of the emperor of Japan is such as to cause abandonment of all hope of his recovery. From dawn he has been unconscious. An examination by the court physicians at 6 a. m. disclosed a high temperature, weak and rapid pulse and shallow respiration which was greatly accelerated from the previous night.The critical condition of the emperor was announced in a bulletin and all the imperial princes were summoned to the palace. The physicians employed artificial measures to prolong life, but the injection of stimulants seemed to be of little avail. The temperature increased from 100 to 102.3, which, with the increased heart action and shallow breathing, indicated that the emperor could not long withstand the calls upon his strength.MUST JOIN ARMY OR LEAVE MEXICORebels Issue Ultimatum to American Residents.El Paso, Tex., July 29.—Americans in Northern Mexico have been officially notified by rebel commanders to give up their arms and leave the country. An only alternative is to join the rebel ranks and fight against the constitutional government of the republic. Refugees from the Mormon colonies in Chihuahua are flocking to the border.According to advices received here rebels armed with an order from General Luez Salazar, commander at Casas Grandes, and vested with authority from General Orozco, commander-in-chief, visited the homes of Mormons in Colonial Durango and confiscated 500 rifles and much ammunition. This also was done at Colonial Juarez, a neighboring settlement. One hundred rebel cavalrymen were dispatched to Colonela Morelos, another American settlement to the east.The colonists were told to give up their arms and leave Mexico or join the rebel army. It was reported that stores were looted in Nueva Casas Grandes and a Chinaman killed when he refused the rebels the right to enter his store.

SIGNS OWN DEATH WARRANT

Boy Shot Through Heart Gave Slayer Permission.Lawrence, Mass., July 29.—"I gave him permission to shoot me," wrote Louis Dion, aged eleven, in a boyish scrawl on a piece of paper, then stood up before Henry Talbot, aged twelve, who shot him dead through the heart.
The shooting was the result of a boy's pride in his new .22-caliber rifle and a dare from a companion who "didn't believe it could kill anything."

Boiler Explodes and Iowa Political Candidate Meets Death.Sigourney, Ia., July 29.—Chauney Meyers of Washington, Ia., was almost instantly killed here when the boiler of a peanut roaster exploded, the fragments striking him in the back. The explosion occurred just as he was stepping into an automobile.
Meyers was a candidate for the state legislature on the Republican ticket.

WILSON'S FUND MAY LEAD

Democrats Expected to Have Largest Campaign Barrel.Washington, July 29.—While accurate estimates of the amount of money to be expended by the different parties in this year's campaign are not possible now it is generally agreed that in point of size they will rank in the following order: Democrats first, Progressives second, Republicans third. This is an absolute reversal of the situation in fights in many years.It is generally believed that Woodrow Wilson's campaign fund will pass the $1,000,000 mark, an amount larger than the Democratic party has raised in the last several campaigns. It is also conceded that the Republican fund will take a tremendous slump and drop below the $1,000,000 mark.The Roosevelt fund is the mystery, but judging from the ease with which the colonel's followers obtained money to finance his primary campaign he will have a sufficient supply to swamp the Taft war chest.

MORE PASSENGERS CARRIED

But Commerce Commission Report Shows Decrease in Freight.Washington, July 29.—American railways carried more passengers during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1911, than in any single previous year, but considerably less freight than during the previous year.These facts were developed in a preliminary abstract of the twenty-fourth annual statistical report of the interstate commerce commission, just made public.The number of passengers carried was 997,409,832, an increase since the previous year of 25,726,653. The average receipts per passenger for each mile traveled was a trifle more than 1.9 cents. The number of tons freight hauled was 1,781,687,934, a decrease from the previous year of 65,282,147 tons. The average receipts per mile for each ton hauled was a fraction more than .75 of a cent.

At a former trial he was found

IS OPPOSED TO FREE TRADE

Regards High Cost of Living as but a Development of Present Tariff System—Will Declare for Tariff for Revenue Only and Favors a Gradual Rather Than Sweeping Reduction in Rates.Seagirt, N. J., July 29.—Governor Wilson is on a yacht, putting the finishing touches to his speech of acceptance of the presidential nomination. No word of any kind came from him to the summer capital and there is every reason to believe he is many miles out on the ocean.A week has elapsed since his departure to seek seclusion in which to write his speech. It will be the governor's first public comment on the Democratic platform as a whole. It will be delivered here Aug. 7 at the ceremony of notification. If the day is fine the governor probably will talk from a little knoll in his yard beneath a group of elms.While the governor has declined to discuss his speech it is known definitely here that the tariff will be dealt with as the leading issue. In close relation to this the governor places the high cost of living. The latter he is said to regard as but a development of the present tariff system. There are other points, he has intimated, with which he will deal.Friends of the governor, in the light of his past utterances on this question and from manuscripts he left behind him when he went into seclusion, assert that the governor will declare in his speech for a tariff for revenue and not for free trade and will urge a gradual rather than a sweeping reduction in tariff schedules, until the tariff becomes actually an instrument for revenue, as he defines the word, and not for protection.There is no doubt in their minds that the governor will devote some portion of his speech to the relations between what he calls "big business" and the tariff. They point to speeches made by the governor before his nomi

Deafness is caused by an inflamed

LAYING OUT A ROAD.

Billings Was In No Hurry, So the Work Was Done Right.

A good many years ago C. K. G. Billings, who made his millions in Chicago gas, bought a good sized plot of ground on the heights overlooking the Hudson river at the upper end of Manhattan Island. Some time later he put up a house which still remains the pride of "seeing New York" guides.

When the land had been bought the question arose as to the best means of laying out a roadway up the steep and rocky hill, at the crest of which the house was to stand. Mr. Billings was puzzled. He wanted to make it as easy a climb as he could. He mentioned the problem to his friend W. C. Muschen-heim, a New York hotel proprietor. Mr.
Muschenheim, who was familiar with the hills and dales of that part of New York, gave the following advice:

"You aren't in any great hurry, so why don't you have it done right? Put one of your cows on that land and give her time to lay out a path up that hill.
Trust her to find the easiest and most comfortable grade."

Mr. Billings followed the suggestion, and in the course of time the cow made a path which has long since been developed into a permanent, winding, slowly ascending roadway.—Saturday

Dickens' Den.

Dickens' den for his material surroundings did not end with his bedroom. His favorite writing place at Gadshill was a Swiss chalet in the shrubbery, and this he fitted up in a most ingenious fashion. "I have put mirrors in the chalet where I write," he says in one of his letters, "and they reflect and refract in all kinds of ways the leaves that are quivering at the windows and the great fields of waving corn and the sail dotted river. My room is up among the branches of the trees, and the birds and the butterflies fly in and out, and the green branches shoot in at the open windows, and the lights and the shadows of the clouds come and go with the rest of the company. The scent of the flowers and indeed of everything that is growing for miles and miles is most delicious."

HAD THE GAME ALL BUT WON

A Fluke Play on the Part of Fielder Sheffo in Seventh Inning Starts The Deluge

AKELEY WON BY 3 TO 2 SCORE

Manager Callan Was the Star, Hitting and Fielding Exceptionally Well in Sunday's Game

After clearly out-playing Akeley and scoring six hits off of Chelgard, the Akeley pitcher, Brainerd commenced to lose it all Sunday afternoon by what may be termed a fluke play when its left fielder, Sheffo, catching the high fly of Bellecourt, nonchalantly tossed the ball to Third Baseman Templeton, the bases being full.

There was no occasion for a rush or for nervousness on the part of the throw. The ball went away over Templeton's head and rolled into the crowd, and then the deluge started. Bergen slid for home while Templeton and Roderick struggled after the ball.

The Akeley team, which for six innings had never had a man near third base and only an occasional one in the vicinity of second base, had tied the one score which Brainerd had secured in the sixth. For six innings Brainerd had played snappy, almost errorless ball and a feeling of nervousness enshrouded the fans and many thought the contest was good for 10 or more innings.

Kleinberger rapped out a hit near second which was fielded by Murphy and he threw for home, but Lyle beat the ball and scored Akeley's second run. The Indian Anywash struck one into first base territory which Rogers got and touched the base, retiring the Indian. Rogers whirled about and threw home, but Hollstein had landed at the home plate with the third run. That finished Akeley's scoring for the game and it now stood 3 to 1 in favor of Akeley.

The eighth made no change in the fortunes of the locals.

In the ninth with the figures 3 to 1 hanging over them, Sheffo hit hard and was put out at first. Callan got to first and watching his opportunity stole second. Murphy slammed out the ball and scored Callan. Pandemonium reigned and there was more noise than a bull moose convention, but that died out when Rogers flew out to center and Cook flew out to a fielder, and Brainerd lost 3 to 2.

A study of the box score will clearly show how Akeley was outclassed. Brainerd got 6 hits off Chelgard, while Cook allowed but 2 hits. Brainerd had 7 men left on bases and Akeley 1. In regard to stolen bases Brainerd made a record, the team stealing seven bases.

Manager Callan was the star, getting a walk and two hits out of four times to bat stealing three bases, making both of Brainerd's scores and accepting four chances in the field without an error.

Sheffo hit the ball well but an out-fielder's mitt generally stopped his drives.

The game was one of the most intensely interesting ones seen by local fans. It took six innings before a score landed. The crowd was large, filling the grand stand, the bleachers, the side lines and every other vantage point. A section of the grand stand has been reserved for the visitors, the Akeley automobile club. The Brainerd City band sat near by and furnished inspiring music. The day was ideal weather. The score:

RASPBERRIES BY THE CARLOADS

Special by Phone to Dispatch:

Deerwood, Minn., July 29—The raspberry season is on in full blast in this vicinity and the Bay Lake Fruit Growers association is harvesting one of the largest crops ever grown in this territory.

Special cars are being furnished by the Northern Pacific railway and one loaded with 800 crates and attached to the night passenger train went to the Twin Cities via Staples. Other cars are being sent to Fargo, Grand Forks and other western points.

On Sunday an express refrigerator car loaded with 800 cases was sent to Winnipeg, Canada. Fine, luscious, firm berries, cleanly picked, honestly packed and promptly shipped, these are the points which are bringing the berries of the Bay Lake Fruit Growers association to the notice of the world and creating an unparalleled demand. In addition to berries, the association will this year also market its cabbages, potatoes and root crops, all raised with the same standard of care and excellence as shown in its berry culture.

AUTOMOBILE NEWS

News of Tourists Visiting City—Local Items—Trade Notes From the Garages

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nolan, Fred Nolan, Miss E. Whaley, Miss M. Whaley, H. E. Whaley and Adam Patchie, of St. Paul, arrived in the city today having motored from St. Paul to Brainerd.

A local auto owner was nearly run over by his own machine last week. The engine died on him. He left the clutch in the intermediate instead of setting it at neutral and vigorously cranked up his machine. The auto started with a jump and nearly butted the owner down in his tracks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Tinkelpaugh, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Keene and H. C. Johnson visited Mille Lacs lake Sunday. They enjoyed a most delightful trip, the roads being in fine condition. This was Mr. Johnson's first visit at the lake and he was most favorably impressed with the lake scenery and farms.

The "press car" in which were seated C. F. Sheers, editor of the Akeley Herald-Tribune, E. M. Irish and others of the Akeley people, ran into a barb wire fence near Nisswa. One head light was cracked and the steering gear bent.

An Akeley car, leaving the baseball field, ran down one of two fighting dogs and broke the back of a hunting dog. This was no fault on the part of the auto driver, who did his best to clear the fighting canines.

The Rosko Brothers and the E. R. Smith garages were kept busy attending to minor repairs on Akeley machines.

A few more visits like the Akeley auto club's fraternal stay in the city will do much to put some life into the Brainerd Auto club.

Editor Sheers has promised a big write-up in his paper, the Akeley Herald-Tribune, and will tell all about the autoists' experiences in Brainerd and Crow Wing county.

THE AKELEY AUTO CLUB VISITS CITY

Even Out of 20 Cars Make the 67 Mile Run From Akeley to Brainerd Sunday

DESCRIPTION OF ROUTE TAKEN

Auto Club is a Live, Enthusiastic One and is Working Energetically For Good Roads

The Akeley Auto club visited Brainerd Sunday, arriving shortly after the noon hour. Eleven cars out of 20 made the 67 mile run to Brainerd. The others were deterred by the fierce storm which had raged during Sunday night and they did not have the courage to take to the roads the next day.

The car owners and their cars arriving at Brainerd were L. J. Randall, president of Akeley Auto club, in a Maxwell; Dr. G. N. Doran, Michigan auto; Ole A. Lee, president Akeley Commercial club, Oldsmobile; Thomas London, Flanders; H. A. Mantor, Hudson; A. F. Kleinberger, superintendent Red River Lumber Co. sawmill, Michigan; D. Theriault, Maxwell; E. A. Ferris, Reo; H. H. Johnson, E. M. P.; John Snider, Jr., Buick; H. H. Johnson, Flanders. Each car was decorated with a large Akeley pennant and a placard bearing the words, Akeley-Brainerd run.

Among the passengers carried were Mrs. G. N. Doran, Miss Sue Doran, Miss Susie Wright, County Attorney and Mrs. M. J. Woolley, Mrs. O. A. Lee and three children, Mrs. T. W. London, Arthur Norby, D. Theriault Sr., D. Theriault Jr.; Miss Dorris Theriault, E. M. Irish, vice president Akeley Commercial club and chairman good roads committee; C. F. Sheers, editor Akeley Herald-Tribune; Mrs. E. A. Ferris, Miss Margaret Ferris, Mrs. H. H. Johnson, Miss Mabel Fritcher, Mrs. A. F. Kleinberger, Miss Marion Kleinberger, Frederick Kleinberger, Roy Brown, E. R. Bell, F. W. Markwood, John Bell.

The touring party left Akeley at about eight o'clock in the morning and the actual running time was less than four hours. The pilot car met the car of Dr. W. A. Erickson, secretary of the Brainerd Auto club at Pequot and he escorted them to Nisswa.

At this point they were hailed by Mayor H. P. Dunn who reviewed the parade and welcomed them to Brainerd and told them there were only a few miles now separating them from their goal, the metropolis of central Minnesota. Among the Brainerd autoists to meet the Akeley delegation at this point were George D. LaBar, F. A. Farrar, Alderman A. C. Lagerquist, E. R. Smith, E. G. Houghton, Dr. Henri Ribbel, Martin Wicklund, Earl Dennis, all of Brainerd, and William Murray, of Nisswa.

A neat, little folder entitled "The Akeley-Brainerd Picturesque Automobile Route," issued by the Akeley Auto Co. and printed by the Akeley Herald-Tribune, was distributed about the city. The Brainerd-Akeley route is described as the autoist's paradise. Akeley is engaged in the meritorious work of bringing to the notice of the motoring public the advantages and beauties of the route from the Twin Cities, via Brainerd to Akeley and thence to the Itasca State park.

For the purpose of disseminating authentic road information and thus saving the tourist the annoyance of asking questions, V. L. Whitcomb, manager of the Akeley Auto Co., and C. F. Sheers, editor of the Akeley Herald-Tribune, compiled the official guide of the new Brainerd to Akeley trail and took the log from speedometer readings of a special run over this most picturesque route, opening a territory which is a revelation to the tourist.

Winding as it does around beautiful lakes, dotted with hundreds of ducks and filled with nearly every species of game fish, passing summer resorts, farm houses and meadows, through natural picnic grounds and attractive wooded scenes, until 67 miles of a natural panorama have been unfolded, the traveler will find himself in the thriving town of Akeley, which is beautifully situated on the eleventh Crow Wing lake, and is the gateway from the Twin Cities, Anoka, St. Cloud, Brainerd and other towns along this scenic route to the state's most beautiful playgrounds, and through which tourists for Itasca State Park and all points such as Nevis, Dorset, Park Rapids, Laporte to Bemidji and Walker, must necessarily pass.

This route rivals in grandeur and beauty any section of the north-west and promises to be one of the most noted motor roads in the state, and should appeal to the eastern as well as the local tourists, who are expected to take advantage of this highway, for people passing through Brainerd will have a chance of seeing the new iron mines that are being developed, and the mines in active operation.

After leaving Brainerd via the scenic route, through the Lake Park Region of Minnesota, which leads to Akeley, the traveler is guided by numerous signboards which have been erected by the Red River Lumber company and with the aid of the following description he should experience very little difficulty in following the route: Start at Ransford hotel in Brainerd, go south on Sixth one block to Laurel, turn right

The Akeley Auto club took dinner at the Ransford hotel and the Sunday afternoon menu was thoroughly enjoyed. After the dinner cigars were passed around, the gift of E. R. Smith. Each cigar had a yellow band bearing the E. R. S. trademark of the E. R. S. garage.

The Brainerd Commercial club had open house from 2 to 6 P. M. in honor of the visitors and entertained the autoists during those hours. At the ball park a special section of seats had been reserved in the grand stand for the Akeley people and they surely did some boosting for the Akeley team. The grand stand nearly burst in two when Akeley won and many Akeley hats would not fit their owners' heads after Akeley's victory. It was a great day all around for Akeley.

E. M. Irish spent much of his time with J. A. Erickson, chairman of the board of county commissioners. Mr. Irish talked good roads every minute of his time and even when the baseball game was in progress.

route to the state park by way of St. Cloud and Wadena is 139 miles. By way of Brainerd and Akeley it is only 92 miles. If Brainerd will work with Akeley in the matter of improving roads and diverting travel this way, much good will be accomplished for both towns. Mr. Irish will not let the matter drop but will keep in touch with Brainerd people and will continue to stir things up in the way of good roads communication between Akeley and Brainerd. He was formerly a resident of Brainerd and so has a high regard for his old home city as well as his new home town.

Propounds a Question.

"I have a question to ask," said a twelve-year-old lad in a South Boston school, his fifty classmates paying strict attention, curious to ascertain what the substance of the query was.

"Propound the question," answered the schoolma'am, a recent graduate from the normal school.

"If lead makes pens-ill what will make an ink well?"

The boy was immediately sent home and told not to return to school unless his parents accompanied him.—Boston Journal.

The Sea Otter.
The sea otter is nearly twice the size of the common river otter, and the fur, without finishing or preparation of any kind, is more beautiful as it is stripped from the animal than the richest seal-skin, which has to be scraped, plucked of the long upper hairs and then dyed before it could be recognized as the beautiful object which the finished fur undoubtedly is. In the sea otter's fur the soft undercoat, the true fur, is as thick as that of the seal and nearly twice as long, while the long outer hairs are as soft as a sable's tail and often a pale gray, which gives to the whole coat an appearance as of dark fur slightly frosted over.

FIRE DANGER AT SEA.
How Flames Can Sweep the Inside of Even a Metal Ship.
The danger from fire on a transatlantic liner is more serious than is generally believed. It is much greater than the danger from collision and is becoming more and more dangerous with the increased outlay upon luxury and display. The main structure of the ship and most of its essential parts are of metal, but many of the fittings, nearly every feature of ornament and every trapping of luxury, are highly inflammable.

No one who has not been aboard the Spanish wrecks at Santiago can conceive how fire can sweep the inside of even a metal ship. Admiral Cervera described to me the experience on board the Teresa in these words: "The second shot that came on board set us on fire. The fire main was damaged. Soon we were unable to cope with the fire. It swept through her from bow to stern. There was not a space as big as the palm of your hand where life could have been sustained. An insect could not have lived on board. We had to get overboard or be burned."

It is true the Spaniards had not cut out their woodwork and thrown overboard all unnecessary inflammables, as we had in the American fleet, but the inflammability of one of their warships was much less than that of a luxurious ocean liner.—Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson in Engineering Magazine.

A CHEERFUL FACE.
It is said there is nothing which diffuses itself more quickly in a family than the coolness, indifference and discontent which manifest themselves in the countenances of one of its members. This thought is not absolutely true. There are some things which communicate themselves with as much rapidity and more force. They are a bright smile, a frank and open manner, a cheerful face, a happy heart. There is enough misery in the world without adding to it a single frown. A cheerful face is always welcome.

No Danger.

PINEAPPLE PLANTS.
They Do Not Die After Fruiting, but Reproduce Themselves.
Pineapples do not grow on trees. Imagine a plant four feet in extreme height from the ground to the tip of leaves, a single stalk at the surface, but dividing at once into swordlike blades or leaves, fifteen in number, from the center of which appears a stiff, upright stem, at the top of which is the fruit. This stem is short, and the crown of the fruit when fully grown is a foot or more below the points of the leaves.

At the end of a year and a half from planting each plant produces a single fruit, even as a cabbage plant produces a single head. But the pineapple does not die after fruiting once. Down on the stem below the fruit and among the long, narrow leaves a sucker appears. If allowed to remain this will soon become the head of the plant, and within another year it will yield another fruit. This process may go on for a term of years. In the meantime, however, other suckers will make their appearance.

These are broken off, and when stuck into the ground they put out roots and become other plants. Thus a single pineapple plant may produce a dozen or more others while it is yielding fruit from year to year.

"No. I don't like her airs."
"What airs?"

CHANGES NAME FOR $50,000.
St. Louis Doctor Didn't Want Wife to Lose Inheritance.
Rather than see his wife disqualified from inheriting $50,000 Dr. Robert P. Prewitt of St. Louis assumed her maiden name, Gregg. The change was sanctioned by the courts, and they will henceforth be known as Dr. and Mrs. Robert Prewitt Gregg.

Daniel Hopkins Gregg, who died at Richmond, Va., in 1885, specified in his will that his daughter, after her marriage, must continue to bear the name of Gregg.

The Intruder.
A certain boat coming up the Mississippi one day during a flood lost her way and bumped up against a frame house. She hadn't more than touched it before an old darky rammed his head up through a hole in the roof, where the chimney once came out, and yelled at the captain on the boat: "Whar's you gwine wid dat boat? Can't you see nothin'? Fust thing you knows you gwine to turn dis house ober, spill de old woman an' de chil'en out in de flood an' drown 'em. What you doin' out here in de country wid your boat, anyhow? Go on back yander froo de co'nfilds an' get back into de ribber whar you b'longs. Ain't got no business sev'n miles out in de country foolin' roun' people's houses nowhow?" And the boat backed out.—Life.

The Largest Described Snake.
Speke in his narrative of the journey to the source of the Nile describes the largest snake that has ever been seen by man. "I shuddered," he says, "as I looked upon the effects of his tremendous dying strength. For yards around where he lay grass, bushes and saplings—in fact, everything except full grown trees—were cut clean off, as if they had been trimmed with an immense scythe. The monster when measured was fifty-one feet two and one-half inches in extreme length, while around the thickest portions of its body the girth was nearly three feet."
